NCPSL- NOTICE

Establishment of Endowment Lectures Series in the memory of Sindhi Scholars writers etc.

In Continuation of earlier notice dated 06.12.2023, the Council invites proposals from Central/State Govt. university/college/institution on prescribed form –A- available at www.ncpsl.gov.in to hold the endowment lectures/memorial programme to commemorate the Sindhi scholars and writers, who have immensely contributed for the promotion of Sindhi language and literature or in different realm of history, polity, academic and societies educational upliftment etc.

Under this programme, considering the academic and research potential of the university/college/ institution, the council will grant one time Endowment fund of Rs.30.00 Lakhs each to the selected institutions initially for five years as per the agreement to be executed between NCPSL and university/college/institution. The activities, memorial lecture series and the programme for the promotion of Sindhi language, literature, culture etc. will be organized by utilizing the interest amount accrued on the deposited fund. The corpus fund will be assets of the NCPSL and it will be maintained in separate account in nationalized bank of India to be opened by the university/college/institution.

Director reserves rights to accept or reject any proposal without any notice and availability of fund.

The interested university/college/ institution may send their proposal on the prescribed format available on www.ncpsl.gov.in on or before 18-12-2023 at 5:00pm.
